List of regional shelters for Hurricane Katrina evacuees

June 6, 2007

The following article appeared in the Shreveport Times on June 6, 2007 at the following website address:

<http://www.shreveporttimes.com/apps/pbcs.dll/article?AID=/99999999/NEWS/50903034>

There is a new Web site (www.nljfed.org/katrina.htm) that a community member is coordinating for the various shelters here. This site lists material and volunteer needs at the shelters. It also has areas for hurricane evacuees to locate services or information and to register themselves or search for loved ones in an attempt to reconnect families.

Small shelter registration

In an effort to get a handle on the number of non-Red Cross shelters in the area, the state Office of Emergency Preparedness urges all churches, organizations and residents of northwest Louisiana who are providing shelter to hurricane evacuees to register online at www.caddobossierohsep.org. Click on the link at the top of the home page labeled "Shelter Registration Here."
