Ways to Defuse Your Congregational Time Bomb

Kris Tenny-Brittian serves as the Northeast Area Minister of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) of Mid-America. Previously she served as the Senior Consultant to The Mainline Evangelism Research Project, funded by the Lilly Endowment.

Kris began her work with churches in Atlanta, Georgia as administrative assistant for a small inner-city Church; then as director of youth and children's ministries for a large suburban church; and then as associate pastor for a mid-size congregation in a county seat town. While in Washington, she also served as senior pastor for a wealthy suburban congregation in transition and as Associate Regional Minister with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in the Northwest.

Kris has worked as a consultant, coach and seminar leader; has founded two community helping agencies; An on-going passion is the Bethany Fellowships, a ministry of the Christian Church in which she is part of a leadership team that works with recently ordained Disciples ministers serving in congregational ministry. She understands her mission in life as that of equipping, empowering, and encouraging pastors and congregations. She is the author of Top 10 Ways to Defuse Your Congregational Time Bomb and is working with a model for helping congregations approach the "What Nexts" and expects publication in the fall of 2010.
