

Prayer Shawls: We want people to know that we are praying for them; they are not alone. Several times a month, on Tuesdays at 6:30 a group of women gather to create shawls that they pray over and then give to anyone we know who is going through a rough time. The shawls are crocheted, knitted, and fleece tied.

Shut-in Cards: For those who do not get out and about, we offer the opportunity to send cards to people stuck in their homes or to people struggling with illness.

Kairos Prison Ministry: Several times a year we support the prison ministry by supplying 5000 cookies for a retreat weekend.

Summer Mission Projects: Groups go out from the youth, young adults, and adult missions.

INVITATION TO SERVICE

Ramps: We build ramps with Elder Care. A group of men meet on Tuesday to build the ramps and on Thursday to install them.

Bingo at Lucy Corr Nursing Home happens 4 times a year on Tuesday nights for an hour (January, March, June, and September).

Family services: youth meetings: United Methodist Family Services Youth Cottages house boys and girls that have become wards of the court. This in-house residency program helps kids start again. We take dinner and an activity for a Friday evening every six weeks.

Homeless at Monroe Park: Several times a year we bag lunches, clothes, and toiletries to people who live at Monroe Park in Richmond.

Food Pantry for students: (Meadowbrook & Falling Creek) these low income homes need help with supplying lunches and whatever we can give them. Some kids fall thru the cracks. This is an ongoing service.
