FOCUSING ON FELLOWSHIP

REV. TERESA KEEZEL

Focusing on Fellowship is the goal that Council is suggesting for this year. While in the past we have had a list of goals and objectives, this year we are focusing differently.

We know that our usual goals will continue with the joy and activity to which we are accustomed. Bells will meet on Mondays; youth on Sunday nights; Sherborne bags and Safe Haven's dinners. Disciple Bible Study will resume in January. Yes, yes, we are a very active and mission minded community. With confidence and joy we continue. To our list of life, we are proposing that we add the intentional focus of fellowship. We are looking to help us get to know the people they do not already know. We hope to help ourselves get better acquainted with people from the other service and people in other Sunday school classes and people we just don't know.

Some of this goal we know will occur in activities that we already do. When the semi-tractor trailer of pumpkins shows up, there is no telling who you will be standing next to. We introduce ourselves and laugh and pass it on. We get to know people who we do not know when they join our birthday tables on Shrove Tuesday. Like all good Methodists, eating is our friend. In the 'breaking of the bread', be it Thanksgiving or Easter Morning, fellowship binds us with joy and memories. So we are looking for more opportunities to be together.

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

Please have all news, pictures and articles to the office no later than Sunday, October 27th for inclusion in the November Newsletter. This is later in the month to give more time to submit, but we will not be able to include items from after this day in the newsletter.

You can send items by email to trinity@trinity-umc.com or drop off in the "Church Secretary" hallway mailbox.

PASTOR'S CORNER: FOCUSING ON FELLOWSHIP CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1

An example is how Children's Ministries' is broadening the fun in October from a Trunk or Treat event to a full Harvest Festival celebration. The expected candy, games, and costumes will be joined with a Pie Baking contest, hot dogs and s'mores, and more.

Various people have asked to retry the quarterly small group gatherings but this time it not be the people with whom you sit at worship. So I am asking for people to volunteer who will be willing to hold a small group (eat, play, and laugh). Once I get the names, I will post sheets and limit the groups to about 12/15. With the names of people who will host the groups, I will then offer the groups for people to sign up where they want. Please remember, the hope of these small gatherings is not to spend time with people you already know but as an opportunity for you to get to know some people that you've been wondering who they are.

We are asking for your help in planning other odd gathering. Some of the suggestions may be church wide dinners: when and what. The outings do not, however, have to be for everyone. Does someone want to organize a movie night? A group bowling night(with and without bumpers!)? Oh I don't know, a let's make it sushi night? Our focus is on fellowship. We want to get to know each other better just for the fun of it. Eat; play; laugh....building up the Body of Christ. I will put a box in the narthex and am looking forward to your ideas.

Thanks, Teresa

TRINITY CHURCH ORNAMENTS

MAURICE LINKOUS, STEWARDSHIP CHAIRMAN

Chesterfield County has created an ornament depicting the original Trinity Church Sanctuary located at the intersection of Krause Road and Route 10. We have been made aware of the ornament's creation and wish to make it available to all Trinity UMC attendees.

This beautiful ornament comes with a raised brass border and the image of the white church sanctuary in the background. The society researched the history of the church and makes that information available. In 1985 Trinity sold the church building to Chesterfield County and relocated to its present location.

If you are interested in acquiring one of the ornaments please add your name to the signup sheet being circulated during worship service. The cost is $15 plus an optional $5 contribution to our church mortgage for a total of $20. I stress optional because we want everyone that wants an ornament to have one and this is a time of hard economic conditions. We have ordered 80 ornaments and 61 have already been subscribed to. Please make your check payable to Trinity UMC and place it in the offering plate. You should mark the legend of your check Trinity Ornament. Delivery is expected in October.

OCTOBER MUSIC NOTES

PAT MADISON, MUSIC DIRECTOR

September has been a busy month for the music department. Christmas music is here! All are welcome to come and participate in the upcoming events.

Trinity Men's Chorus is rehearsing on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 7:30. We are preparing for "singing at the Pumpkin Patch" on October 19th. We will also be singing for a service in October. We welcome new members!

Trinity Chancel Choir meets at 7:30 on Wednesday evenings. We are looking for new people to join us for the Christmas Cantata which will be on December 8th. We are rehearsing this music now and would love to have additional singers if only for this short time until Christmas. If you enjoy singing, please join us on Wednesdays.

The Trinity Belles had a wonderful retreat at Blackstone. It was good to be together especially with some of our past ringers. We welcome Edward Cook to our group of ringers.

We have 6 Trinity Chimers who are learning and having a great time with Ms Pat Shrader. There is room for more ringers, so if your child has Sunday afternoons free at 4:00 to 5:00, please consider bringing them to this group. It is a great way for them to learn to read music. We look forward to hearing them play in the future.

Odyssey is meeting from 4:00 to 5:00 on Sundays. We are currently dividing the hour into singing, ringing handbells, learning drama for worship. We are learning music for Youth Jam which will be held on November 22nd and 23rd in Richmond. All middle and high school students are welcome to join us on Sundays and become a part of this group.

Our Cherubs, Seraphims, and Angels are meeting on Wednesday evenings from 6:00 to 7:00. If you would like to know more about our Wednesday evening program, please contact me at the church or through e-mail. We went to the Waffle House last Wednesday and now know more about the "falafel house" in our play which will be presented on December 15th at 7:00. Our road trip was fun especially the ride in the church van!

Our Angel Choir is also meeting on Sunday afternoons at 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. This gives some children the opportunity to participate who can't come on Wednesday evenings. We will be singing at Lucy Corr Nursing Home on October 20th at 2:30. This is a great opportunity for us to serve our community. These choirs will soon be singing special music for our church services. All children are welcome to come and participate in these groups.

As we begin the fall season I would like to encourage you to come and participate in our music program at Trinity. October is a great month to come and learn our new music for Fall and the Advent and Christmas Season. It is wonderful to serve God through music and fellowship that we share in these groups. Take a leap of faith and join us this year!

Blessings, Pat

KAIROS COOKIE MINISTRY: INFORMATION, INSTRUCTIONS AND RECIPES

MAURY BECK

INFORMATION

Hello again Trinity Church Family. It is that time of year again; Kairos 44 at Greenville Correctional Center is almost upon us.

The team will need about 5000 cookies for Food Agape for the weekend. If you feel so inclined to have your Sunday School class or any other community group bake cookies, please feel free to do so. We welcome them!

It is very important that you go by the Kairos Cookie Recipe (see below). And while you are baking and packaging, please pray over these cookies that God will use them to change lives for Christ. Kids can get involved, too; place mats or posters that they draw are welcomed.

I need the COOKIES, POSTERS, and PLACEMATS by Sunday, October 20. You can leave them in the kitchen when you come to church that day. If anyone is interested in coming to the Closing Ceremonies for the Kairos Weekend, please let me know (Maury Beck (804) 393.1504). It is a very powerful experience.

As always God Bless You for working in his Kingdom.

SHERBOURNE NOTES

DEBORAH NAPOLITANO

The focus food for October is Canned Chicken.

Our goal is 120 cans.

Providing food for 60 families each month is for His glory.

SAFE HAVENS DATES

Volunteers are needed to provide food and/or service for these monthly dinners. Contact Bertelle for more information.

MONDAY OCTOBER 14
SUNDAY NOVEMBER 10
SUNDAY DECEMBER 8

DONATE DISHES FOR SAFE HAVENS

BERTELLE BUNYARD

We ask for individuals and families to prepare and bring food to serve at our monthly Safe Haven dinners, but this is a request for a different kind of dish.

In serving dinners at Safe Haven, we've seen that they are in need of some new dishware. A good portion of their dishes are excessively worn with chipping ceramic edges.

Does anyone in the congregation have dishes they'd like to donate?

It doesn't have to be a whole set - mismatched dishes are gladly accepted! - however we are seeking thin chip resistant dishes (like Corelleware) because they need to be durable and cabinet space is limited.

If you would like to donate dishes to Safe Haven - either answering this call or as a part of our monthly dinners - contact Bertelle Bunyard at bertctrs@yahoo.com.

UMW OCTOBER MEETING

HALLOWEEN COSTUMES We will take used or homemade costumes.

CHILDREN'S CORNER We will feature activities such as face painting, simple crafts, pumpkin decorating, and story time. For a small price you will purchase tickets to participate in these fun activities. We will have Halloween costumes and gently used baby clothes for sale. If you would like to help with this corner contact Pam Soto.

Remember, proceeds from our bazaar go to missions for women and children in our community and around the world. The more successful our bazaar, the more we can give to others. Please consider baking some goodies, cleaning out the attic or closets, making some soup, or crafting an item. Do come have lunch with us at the café and spend some time shopping. And be sure to invite your neighbors and friends. It will be a fun time!

SUPPORT A SOLDIER ANGELS NEED HELP FILLING GIFT BOXES FOR OUR SOLDIER, MANOLITO.

UMM: BRUNSWICK STEW SALE – OCT 5TH

It's that time of year: when the Trinity UMC Men puts on their annual fundraiser that provides support of their many local missions. The UMM will be cooking their famous Brunswick stew on Saturday, October 5th. The cost this year remains $7 per quart. If you wish to purchase stew, add your name and telephone number to the sign-up sheet at the "sign-up booth." Stew pick up will be 12 – 3 pm on Saturday, October 5.

BRUNSWICK STEW PREP – VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

The men request volunteers to help prep the ingredients (cutting meat, peeling and dicing vegetables). We will start preparing the ingredients Friday, October 4th at 6 pm. ## A NOTE OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity to thank Staff Parrish, Rev. Keezel, United Methodist Men, Pat Shrader and members of the choir, and members of the congregation who honored me with a lovely reception honoring my 30 years at Trinity. Your cards and gifts were greatly appreciated. It has been my honor to serve and to raise my children in this loving church family. I thank you for all the support you have given me and my family through these 30 years. I have been truly blessed.

Love to all,
Pat Madison

A NOTE OF THANKS

Hello Trinity!

As you already know, I'm home. I'm doing well and on a slow mend. Les keeps reminding me it really hasn't been that long. I have made some gains along the way, including: a new wheelchair, new hearing aids, Raspberry Jalapeño Jam, animal cracker sheets, dog loving friends, human loving dogs, low-techie amigos, deeper relationships with family and friends, good food, good reads, a pastor who listens well, know where to go for muscle, positive thoughts, well wishes, a shawl to keep me warm and whole, the word "YES", and most of all prayers. I thank all of you for caring and giving me so much love.

God Bless You,
Darleen
