

New Hope Church – A Church Plant in Winter Garden, Florida

Chris Hughes | Lead Pastor

God has given us a clear calling to start a church in Winter Garden, Florida. My 15 years of ministry experience in diverse ministry settings, along with Launch Network Training, have prepared me for this church planting journey. We can't wait to make an impact on Central Florida and beyond.

As a pastor, my passion is to be a leader who is balanced spiritually and creatively.

My desire is to develop leaders who live with passion and conviction, grow as a communicator of God's word, and aggressively follow God's commission to be and make disciples. My goal is to encourage the church to lead people to encounter love, reflection, and change through Christ Jesus.

Marketing

Our marketing strategy is going to feature a vintage, faded, and classic feel that targets men. We believe that if we reach men, we will reach their families. We will utilize our icon to create awareness of our church in our community during the months leading up to launch.

- A strong web presence that utilizes social media
- 2 strategic mailers to young families in our area
- Partnership with the city to sponsor and serve the annual 4th of July celebration
- Sponsorship of and significant presence at local car shows
- Support for local bike races and marathons, which are culturally significant
- A church office in downtown Winter Garden for consistent community presence
- Free Starbucks Coffee and Krispy Kreme Doughnuts for shoppers on Black Friday

The New Hope Church Ice Cream truck will be giving away free ice cream in neighborhoods and at community events all summer long. The truck will be wrapped in professional graphics and used as a powerful marketing tool.

Beliefs

The Sole Basis of Our Belief is the Bible

The Bible is composed of the 66 books of the Old and New Testament. We believe that Scripture in its entirety originated with God and that it was given through the instrumentality of chosen men. Scripture at one and the same time speaks with the authority of God and reflects the backgrounds, styles, and vocabularies of the human authors. We hold that the Scriptures are infallible and inerrant in the original manuscripts. They are the unique, full, and final authority on all matters of faith and practice, and there are no other writings similarly inspired by God.

GOD

We Believe that there is One True, Holy GOD, eternally existing in three persons—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—each of whom possesses equally all the attributes of deity and the characteristics of personality. In the beginning, God created out of nothing the world and all the things therein, thus manifesting the glory of His power, wisdom, and goodness. By His sovereign power, He continues to sustain His creation. By His providence, He is operating throughout history to fulfill His redemptive purposes.

Salvation

The Central Purpose of God's Revelation in Scripture is to call all people into fellowship with Himself. Originally created to have fellowship with God, man defied God, choosing to go his own way, and thus was alienated from God and suffered the corruption of his nature, rendering him unable to please God. The fall took place at the beginning of human history, and all individuals since have suffered these consequences and are thus in need of the saving grace of God. The salvation of mankind is, then, wholly a work of God's free grace, not the result, in whole or in part of human works or goodness, and must be personally appropriated by repentance and faith. When God has begun a saving work in the heart of any person, He gives assurance in His Word that He will continue performing it until the day of its full consummation. Jesus has asked all new believers to be baptized. Therefore, our church asks those who have made the decision to follow Christ to submit themselves to His request to be baptized, publicly declaring their faith in Him.

Jesus Christ

Jesus Christ is the Eternal Second Person of the Trinity who united with a true human nature by a miraculous conception and virgin birth. He lived a life of perfect obedience to the Father and voluntarily atoned for the sins of all by dying on the cross as their substitute, thus satisfying divine justice and accomplishing salvation for all who trust in Him alone. He rose from the dead in the same body, though glorified, in which He lived and died. He ascended into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of the Father, where He, the only Mediator between God and man, continually makes intercession for His own. He shall come again to earth, personally and visibly, to consummate history and the eternal plan of God.

The Holy Spirit (& the Christian Life)

The Essential Accompaniment of a genuine saving relationship with Jesus Christ is a life of holiness and obedience, attained by believers as they submit to the Holy Spirit, the third Person of the Trinity. He was sent into the world by the Father and the Son to apply to mankind the saving work of Christ. He enlightens the minds of sinners, awakens in them a recognition of their need of a Savior and regenerates them. At the point of salvation, He permanently indwells every believer to become the source of assurance, strength and wisdom, and uniquely endows each believer with gifts for the building up of the body. The Holy Spirit guides believers in understanding and applying the Scripture. His power and control are appropriated by faith, making it possible for the believer to lead a life of Christ-like character and to bear fruit to the glory of the Father.

Human Destiny

Death Seals the Eternal Destiny of Each Person. For all mankind, there will be a resurrection into the spiritual world and a judgment that will determine the fate of each individual. Unbelievers will be separated from God into condemnation. God's judgment will reveal His justice in consigning them to perpetuate in eternal retribution their own rejection of God. Believers will be received into eternal communion with God and will be rewarded for works done in this life.

The Church

The Corollary of Union with Jesus Christ is that all believers become members of His body, the Church. There is one true Church universal, comprised of all those who acknowledge Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. The Scripture commands believers to gather together to devote themselves to worship, prayer, the teaching of the Word, the observance of Communion and Baptism as established by Jesus Christ, fellowship, service to the body through the development and use of talents and gifts, and outreach to the world. Wherever God's people meet regularly in obedience to this command, there is the local expression of the church. Under the watchful care of godly church leadership, its members are to work together in love and unity, intent on the one ultimate purpose of glorifying Christ.

Faith and Practice

Scripture is the Final Authority in all matters of faith and practice. This church recognizes that it cannot bind the conscience of individual members in areas where Scripture is silent. Rather, each believer is to be led in those areas by the Lord, to whom he or she alone is ultimately responsible.

Conclusion

We believe that this is an accurate summary of what Scripture teaches. All participating members and regular attenders of New Hope should refrain from advocating doctrines that are not included in this Statement of Faith in such a way as to cause dissension. We desire the local expression of Christ's body at New Hope to be a radiant example of love, grace, and unity.
