JULY MISSION OFFERING

Madison Urban Ministry-Healing House

Founded in 1971 Madison-area Urban Ministry (MUM) has served as a prophetic voice for justice in our community. MUM's many programs inspire hope for individuals returning to the Dane County community after incarceration. MUM breaks down the barriers that prevent them from fully participating in our community and the lives of their families. In addition, MUM supports families of those incarcerated through reading programs, family visit programs and mentoring programs. This helps bring wholeness and healing to individuals and their families.

MUM's community-based solutions invest in residence, employment support, transportation and education that reduce recidivism (returning to prison) and reconnect returning prisoners with their families and neighborhoods.

An important and developing aspect of MUM is The Healing House, a place that a homeless child or family member can go to heal after surgery. Scheduled to open in November at 303 Lathrop Street in Madison, it will be the first in Wisconsin. The house will be an eight-bed facility, providing 24/7 recuperative care by medically trained staff and volunteers for up to 28 days. The Healing House also will provide clients with three meals a day, child care assistance and case management to end the cycle of homelessness. There are 63 medical respites in the U.S.

To support this mission, please mark "The Healing House" on your envelope or memo line of your check.

PASTOR BRAD VACATION

Pastor Brad is taking vacation July 11 through July 21. If you need a pastor, please call the church office (222-1633). You may also call Mark Buffat, our Caring Coordinator, (335-5063).

PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Friends,

Since we are focusing on the Lord's Prayer in worship this summer, I wanted to offer some practical ways to use the prayer as a way of developing our prayer life. They come from a British scholar and bishop named N.T. Wright.

One method that has been used by many people over many years is to take each clause of the prayer at a time, and, while holding each in turn in the back of your mind, call into the front of your mind the particular things you want to pray for under that heading. For example, under the heading "Thy Kingdom Come" you may want to include the peace of the world, with some particular instances. The important thing is to let the spirit of the prayer envelop the people and situations you are concerned about so that you see them bathed in the light of God's love. In a similar vein, someone in our church recently described to me how she prays the prayer a phrase at a time while knitting as a meditation exercise.

You can also use the Lord's Prayer in the same way some people use the Orthodox Jesus-prayer. Repeat it slowly, again and again, in the rhythm of your breathing, so that it becomes second nature. Living busy, stressful lives as we do, we may find this difficult. But then again, it is precisely people like us who need—physically even—the calming and nourishing medicine of this prayer to pervade our subconscious. Try this in the car by yourself instead of listening to the radio. And expect it to take some time.

Finally, you might like to take the clauses of the prayer one by one and make each in turn your "prayer for the day." Sunday—Our Father. Monday—Hallowed be thy name. Tuesday—Thy Kingdom Come. Wednesday—Give us this day. Thursday—Forgive us our trespasses. Friday—Deliver us from evil. Saturday—The kingdom, the power and the glory. Use the clause of the day as a private space into which you can step at any moment, through which you can pray for the people you meet, the things you're doing, everything that's going on around you. The "prayer of the day" then becomes the lens through which you see the world.

Of course, there are many other ways the prayer can be used, but these few give us a place to start. They help us discover the value of a treasure we already own, and I hope you will try one of them and find it helpful to develop your prayer life.

Summer blessings,

Pastor Brad

CARING COORDINATOR COLUMN

Caring for each other. Caring for ourselves. Caring for creation. Precepts we live out and understand fairly well. Caring for "the other," however, is more complicated. The divisive and polarizing social and political climate we find ourselves in these days does not help matters. A climate that pressures those who are marginalized into even more vulnerable positions. A climate that pits family members and neighbors against each other depending on religious beliefs or political affiliation. All this makes caring for "the other" even more imperative. Following our June 3rd worship, a table talk gathering during fellowship time dove deeper into this topic. Stories were shared. Lively and impassioned discussions enlightened and inspired. For those who would like to know more about this gathering and what we discussed, I'd be happy to share some highlights and handouts. And if there is enough interest, I'd be glad coordinate another table talk discussion on this topic in the near future.

Seeds of Peace Madison is working on several summer community engagement and fundraising events to benefit our three weekend school nutrition programs. On the 4th of July, we'll pass out bottled water, fresh popcorn, and snack goods to families and kids as they make their way past our church in route to Winnequah Park for the 4th festivities. If you'd like to contribute store-bought or homemade snacks, please drop off before 6 pm on the 4th. Save the date, Thursday, August 30, for the second annual Tunes on the Triangle and Pie Auction. Last year we raised over $2,500, most of which came from auctioning off homemade pies! Let me know if you'd like to bake pies for this year's event. Our next Seed's organizational meeting is set for Saturday, July 7, 10 am to Noon, at Lake Edge Lutheran Church. All are welcome!

Caring & Coordinating, Mark Buffat

A VACATION REMINDER

Summer is a time for many people to travel, and church attendance may be more sporadic for some. If you are going to be out of town, please drop your offering envelope in the mail. This may also be a time to set up your donation to automatically get deposited into the church account. There are forms available in the church office.

SHARE YOUR TALENT!

During the summer months, our various choirs get a well-deserved rest. That means that we need volunteers to provide special music each Sunday, to enrich our worship hour. If you would be willing to share special music on one of the summer Sundays, please the church office at 222-1633. Adults, young people, children, if you have a musical talent that has been hidden from view, please consider sharing it.

FOOD PANTRY

There is always a need for food pantry items, especially during the summer months. Next time you are shopping, add a couple things to your cart for the St. Stephen's Food Pantry. Please be sure to check the expiration date on the food. Also bring in your extra paper grocery bags for St Stephen's.

TRUSTEE NEWS

The Trustees have an email address for everyone to send their suggestions. That address is umctrustee@gmail.com. This mailbox will be monitored by the trustees and will serve as a repository for suggestions. The Trustee bulletin board in Fellowship Hall will serve as a display of outstanding small projects where we could use some assistance.

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

This year the Price and Czerepinski Scholarships have been awarded to Isaac McNurlen and Lindsey Medenblik. Congratulations!

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL JULY 30-AUGUST 2

Clap Your Hands, Stomp Your Feet

Our program will teach children the "why" behind worship. Through a study of King David, children gain a clear understanding of our Heavenly Father's grace and mercy. Kids will sing and dance, study God's word, do arts and crafts while learning that praise is a lifelong response to the good news of Jesus.

Preschool through 5th grade youth are invited to participate Monday through Thursday, July 30-August 2 from 6-8pm (includes a family meal). Older youth and adults are needed as volunteers. You do not need to have young children to volunteer!

If you are able to help, please call the church office (222-1633). The VBS registration form is in this newsletter.

SUMMER RED KETTLE CAMPAIGN

GUN VIOLENCE PICKED ME

On the surveys in which respondents are asked to rank order the issues most important to them, I typically rank each of the issues as number one, but I can't give my time and attention to all of them. So I have to choose, or in this case be chosen. The gun violence issue chose me. Perhaps because 50 years ago, my father committed suicide.

Last winter I attended a meeting of the Wisconsin Coalition for Gun Safety. At that meeting, I met Wisconsin legislators, representatives from the Wisconsin Anti-Violent Effort (WAVE) and Moms Demand Action (MDA), local clergy, and mental health and public health workers, as well as parents and grandparents who have been affected—or who fervently pray that their families will not be affected—by gun violence.

I quickly found out that gun violence in the United States is an epidemic, a public health and safety issue, and that in Wisconsin the numbers of gun deaths, including suicides, are among the highest in the nation. School shootings, and other mass shootings, are the most dramatic events, but homicides, domestic abuse deaths, suicides, and children's deaths from playing with guns are part of the startling numbers.

As a result of this meeting and other community events that we have attended, Mark Buffat and I began to talk about putting together a panel for a "Let's Talk About It" forum on gun violence. Our first forum on this topic was held on May 31, as a kick-off to the annual Wear Orange Weekend, which raises public awareness of gun violence in our nation. Our five panelists, who included State Senator Mark Miller, Reverend Jerry Hancock, Heather Driscoll from MDA, John Cioci from WAVE, and A. J. Feucht, a retired National Guard colonel and member of our congregation, provided us with information and insights that further clarified the issue and offered short-range and long-range proposals for changes in our state and federal laws regarding firearm safety.

Sensible gun safety legislation is NOT the issue of contention that it is touted to be, nor is it an attack upon the second amendment. Responsible gun owners do not want guns in the hands of irresponsible people any more than those of us who have chosen not to own guns. It is time to solve this problem by passing effective laws that will allow our state to protect our citizens from the tragedies of gun violence to the degree that we can. Yes, criminals will always be able to get guns, but sensible legislation could prevent some people from becoming criminals by taking another person's life. This goal is moral, rational, and just and one that the United Methodist Church supports.

A STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

Giving: Questions for a Money Autobiography, Pt. 4

From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and from the one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded. (Luke 12:48)

From Writing a Money Autobiography by Dan Dick

A money autobiography is a reflection process on the role and influence of money and material possessions in our life. It challenges us to explore the past to see how our attitudes, assumptions, and values concerning money and wealth were formed.

Lifestyle Questions concerning money & wealth

- Does the fact that 2/3 of the earth's people lives below the U.S. poverty line affect your attitude toward money? Why? Or why not?
- How do you feel when people approach you for money on the street? When you receive phone solicitations for charities?
- Which words best describe you and why? Affluent, comfortable, average, impoverished, poor, struggling, wealthy, working class.
- What kind of legacy would you like to leave when you die? Of your worldly possessions, what would you leave to whom, and why?
- One strong theme of our faith is that wealth is given for the common good of the whole community. What does this mean to you? Does anyone have a claim to your money and possessions other than you?
- In what ways does your relationship with money affect your faith? In what ways does your faith affect your relationship with money?
- In what ways do you feel your relationship with money is a spiritual issue? What does it mean to you to be a good steward?

It is useful to create a money autobiography journal to record your thoughts, reflections, and feelings. Then, you can return to the money autobiography journal months and years afterward.
