In Mark 16:5, Jesus commands His disciples,

“Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation.”

For believers, that great commandment is a great privilege. We have the privilege of joining with Christ as He gathers a people to Himself from every tribe, nation, and tongue. We do that by living on mission and sharing the Gospel at home and throughout the world. At Faith Radio, we want to equip you to do just that, which is why we partner with programmers and ministries who are themselves sharing the Good News.

In this issue, we highlight opportunities for you to share your faith and even provide a Gospel tract to help you explain God’s message of salvation. During the Easter season, people often have questions that can open a door to spiritual conversations, so be prepared to respond! Don’t miss opportunities to reach the lost for Christ in your community and beyond.

PROGRAMMER SPOTLIGHTS

Heard on Faith Radio

“God’s plan for enlarging His kingdom is so simple - one person telling another about the Savior. Yet we’re busy and full of excuses. Just remember, someone’s eternal destiny is at stake. The joy you’ll have when you meet that person in heaven will far exceed any discomfort you felt in sharing the gospel.” - Charles Stanley, In Touch, heard weekdays at 8:00 a.m.

“Outside our comfort zone, though, is where we experience the true awesomeness of God.”
- Lysa TerKeurst, Proverbs 31 Ministries

“Jesus came to seek and save those who are lost, and as His followers, we are dutifully called to the same work.” - David Jeremiah, Turning Point, heard weekdays at 6:00 a.m.

“56% of all Christians say they seldom or never share their faith with others.” - Barry Meguiar, Revival Outside the Walls

Serving Our Savior

by Billy Irvin, Director of Ministry Relations

Patty Mills is a Faith Radio listener who serves as a trainer for Serving Our Savior (SOS), a local ministry that does event evangelism. Since 2001, SOS has seen 70,000 decisions for Christ. I recently talked with Patty about her work with SOS.

Why are you involved in sharing the Gospel?
Because I want everyone to know that God loves them so much that He made a way for them to have an abundant life here on earth, but more importantly, to spend an eternity with Him in heaven. What greater cause or honor could any Christ follower have than sharing the Good News?

What joy do you get from it?
One of our SOS volunteers put it best, "I've done a lot of things in my life to make myself feel good but NOTHING feels better than leading someone to Christ."

How does Faith Radio help you disciple new believers?
Faith Radio has been instrumental! You have partnered with us and promoted our events, provided faith based literature, and prayed for the ministry. We are so blessed to be discipleship partners with Faith Radio.

Do you train individuals or groups that want to learn to share?
That's what we love to do almost as much as leading people to Christ - disciple people and groups on sharing Jesus! We use tracts or the unique "See 3 Things God Cannot Do" board that allows you to begin a salvation conversation with anyone, anywhere. To learn more about SOS and their evangelism training, visit www.sosevents.org.

Patty Mills with her husband, Bobby, and two daughters, Willow and Bella.

The Live Nativity

We had a great time partnering with Baptist Health to bring back The Live Nativity. This free community event allows families to relive the stable scene with live animals and a reading of the Christmas story.

The Iron Works Ministry

Iron Works ministry in Andalusia invited Patrick Morley, founder of "Man in the Mirror," to teach about how to reach men in the community. He shared some great tips with us live on Faith Radio.

Do you have a photo from a Faith Radio event or maybe your Christmas Cross? If so, email it to mail@faithradio.org. We may share it in one of our publications!

Pastor's Luncheon

Billy Irvin had the privilege of encouraging pastors from Dallas County at a very special lunch, where he shared about our ministry broadcast in prisons and hospitals.

Brantley High School Football Banquet

Upward Basketball

We love being invited into the community to share Christ and encouragement from God's Word. Frazer's Upward Basketball had "Faith Radio Day" where we led devotions during the game.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) provides outstanding ministry to high school students and colleges around our state. We are always blessed to be part of their events and inform our listeners about their outstanding speakers. Bob Crittenden interviews Georgia Tech chaplain and former NFL running back, Derrick Moore, who spoke at the Christmas breakfast. Also pictured is FCA director, John Gibbons.

Faith Radio's Opportunities for

by Billy Irvin, Director of Ministry Relations

Evangelism

Faith Radio has a tremendous on-going menu of opportunities for you to be an active participant in sharing the Gospel. Did you know we have a ministry calendar on our website where we feature hundreds of events each year happening in our listening area? We also regularly highlight area ministry opportunities on our website and throughout our daily programming. Below are some examples. Please utilize Faith Radio as a resource to help you to get involved.

The Wiregrass Will Graham Celebration

Will Graham, grandson of Billy Graham, is bringing the third generation of Crusades to the Dothan Civic Center May 5-7. Graham wants the saved to bring the lost, and his directive was, "Don't invite them, bring them!" This event will provide opportunities for support through prayer and through serving as a decision counselor and discipler.

Fields of Faith with the FCA

On football fields across the country in the fall, high school rivals join together for worship, fellowship, and encouragement. Fields of Faith is a student-led outreach event of Fellowship of Christian Athletes. As students live out their faith by lifting up the name of Jesus, doors are opened for them to share Christ with their non-believing friends. Although students do the leading, adults often do the feeding by providing a great meal for the event. If you are skilled at the grill, this is a great opportunity for you to help support this ministry to students.

River Region Judgment House

For at least 10 nights during October each year, local churches work together to present a walk-through drama that causes participants to consider where they will spend eternity. Each year, hundreds of people make decisions for Christ at this powerful event. The Judgment House is a large undertaking, and opportunities abound for volunteers in the areas of drama, set-building, prayer, decision counseling, greeting, and a host of other positions.

Alabama Serving Our Savior (SOS)

SOS is an evangelistic ministry that principally ministers at fairs, festivals, and other large events using a unique "3 Things God Cannot Do" display to engage people in Gospel conversations. In Alabama, SOS volunteers have shared the Gospel at the Talladega races, Alabama National Fair, fall festivals, car shows, carnivals, and sporting events. They have found that these events are great opportunities to engage people in conversations that allow them to know how much they are loved by God and invite them into a relationship with Jesus Christ. SOS also trains believers in sharing the Gospel using the "3 Things" strategy.

Iron Works Men's Ministry of Covington County

Every month, Christian men in Covington County gather at an old schoolhouse for fellowship and a free steak dinner. While getting a great meal, they more importantly get fed spiritually, as they hear a fabulous Christian speaker share about knowing and walking with Jesus Christ. Iron Works' vision is for every church to have a men's group that is cooperating with other churches to provide community opportunities for men to know Christ.

Equipping Believers

Faith Radio Ministry Partners Provide Ministry Tools

by Bob Crittenden, host of The Meeting House

Jesus calls us to share the good news of the Gospel with people who do not know Him. Many of Faith Radio's programmers offer resources to help believers share their faith.

Revival Outside the Walls, featuring Barry Meguiar, has a website (rotw.com) with statistics, videos, and other resources that can both motivate and equip you to share Christ. They recently launched a Life Purpose/E-Prayer Mobile App to be a resource on-the-go.

Evangelism Explosion ("EE") produces the radio feature Share Life Today, with EE's President, John Sorenson. The website evangelismexplosion.org/share-life-today offers many evangelistic resources, including answers to tough questions, a web presentation of the Gospel called Steps to Life, and free printable online tracts.

Making Your Life Count, with speaker Steve Douglass, is a radio show produced by Cru. The website, makingyourlifecountradio.org, contains a section on how to know God, Who is Jesus, and numerous other resources to aid you in sharing your faith.

Faith Radio has partnered with the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association to offer an online tract, 4 Steps to Peace, at faithradio.org.

A popular tool used in sharing the gospel is the Wordless Book, associated with Child Evangelism Fellowship, which offers training through cefonline.com. The Wordless Book is said to have been given to Charles Spurgeon by another minister in 1866. It initially had three pages - black (representing sinfulness), red (representing Christ's blood), and white (representing cleansing). Later, a gold page was added to represent heaven. The book, and its colors, has been used by many to share the Gospel.

Montgomery-based evangelist Terry Veazey, who has been a guest on The Meeting House from locations around the world, uses a variation of the Wordless Book evangelism tool: a soccer ball with panels corresponding to the colors of the book.

Faith Radio intentionally partners with ministries that make sharing the good news of Jesus Christ a priority. Please explore the resources mentioned above to discover how to more boldly and effectively share your faith.

The Meeting House's International Flavor

Bob joins Media Vision Trip for Operation Christmas Child

by Bob Crittenden, host of The Meeting House

In December, I traveled to Bogota, Colombia, as part of a Media Vision Trip for Operation Christmas Child, a ministry of Samaritan's Purse. I witnessed first-hand the evangelistic impact a simple shoebox makes in the life of a child. When you, your family, and church pack a shoebox full of school supplies, hygiene items, toys, and more, you can be confident that those boxes will be used to teach children about a relationship with Jesus.

I observed quite a bit about the Operation Christmas Child effort during my stay. The shoebox distribution is done in partnership with the local church. In Bogota, the ministry partnered with a passionate group of local church leaders who invited children to take part in distribution events. These joy-filled occasions included worship and a gospel presentation.

Bob celebrated with new graduates of The Greatest Journey.

Children receiving shoeboxes are invited to take part in a 12-lesson discipleship program, The Greatest Journey, to discover what it means to be a follower of Christ. Our team attended a graduation ceremony at one local church where the children donned caps and gowns and were recognized for this spiritual milestone. Operation Christmas Child, in addition to being an evangelistic ministry, also has become a children's discipleship ministry and helps to equip church leaders in their work with children.

Although many of the Colombian people we visited live in extreme poverty, they have a deep, authentic joy. This joy was not only reflected in the smiles on the children's faces, but through the excitement of the leaders. There was a real recognition that even though they lack material possessions, they can have the joy of Jesus. It's contagious and refreshing and can be an inspiration to all of us as we think about the sufficiency of our Savior!

Bob delivered shoeboxes to grateful children.

Gifts in Memory and in Honor of...

A memorial gift is a meaningful way to honor someone at the time of death by recognizing that person's Christian faith and testimony. Similarly, an honorarium is a tangible way of honoring a living person's testimony. We are thankful for individuals listed below who chose to honor friends and loved ones through a gift that extends the message of Christ through Faith Radio's ministry. Gifts made as of February 14, 2017

Giving Good News

by Billy Irvin, Director of Ministry Relations

Isn't it fun to share good news with others? Those most joyful moments in life like a new baby, a new home, or a new job are so exciting to tell your friends and even those you may not know! We all enjoy sharing good news. As believers, we have the greatest good news, the Gospel, and we have the responsibility to share it. In Matthew 28:19, Jesus told us to "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations..." Jesus' last command should be our first priority!

As Christians, we should find joy in following God's instructions to go and tell. Supporting Faith Radio is one of the many ways you can share the good news of Jesus Christ. When you give a financial gift to this ministry, you are helping us share God's love message to thousands of people each day. Your support of this ministry is a way in which you can go and tell because Faith Radio is sharing the powerful Resurrection story of Jesus all day every day. Give a financial gift today that will be used to share the good news that Jesus is risen!
