

Toward honoring the full Counsel of God's holy and precious Word ...

Is the New Covenant in Jesus Christ

[the "eternal covenant" as promised in Genesis 17:7 & Jeremiah 33 ; as fulfilled in Jesus Christ and taught in the New Testament (e.g., Hebrews 8)]

the same as the "Dispensation of Grace" ?

If the answer to the question above is:

Then the dispensation of grace never ends, correct ?

When does the dispensation of grace end ?

Answer: ? ?

(Please show EXPLICIT Bible evidence for this.)

Related question: WHERE in the Word of God is the dispensation of grace ever said to be "the church age" ?

There are only two passages in the New Testament which use the word "dispensation" and that in only the KJV & NKJV literal versions of the Bible. (Our point: The NASB, ESV, NRSV, etc. don't even use the phrase "dispensation of grace" in the Ephesians 1 & 3 passages.) Let's define terms in light of Bible Counsel, not theological opinion.

IF it does end, then it's NOT the same as the New Covenant, correct?

IF it doesn't end, then aren't many dispensational charts incorrect ?

(because advocates of the position typically end the dispensation of grace at the close of the church age, which many say, is the Pre-Trib Rapture event)

Note: In addition to the poorly evidenced inference of dispensationalism, please also add this factual observation to this concern (regarding the strength of the Pre-Trib Rapture position): There is not ONE explicit passage in the Bible teaching the idea that the Church is raptured before the tribulation period.
