

Toward honoring the full Counsel of God's holy and precious Word ...

Is the New Covenant in Jesus Christ

[the "eternal covenant" as promised in Genesis 17:7 & Jeremiah 33 ; as fulfilled in Jesus Christ and taught in the New Testament (e.g., Hebrews 8)]

the same as the "Dispensation of Grace" ?

If your answer to the question above is:

"YES it is"

"NO it isn't"

then we ask ...

Then the dispensation of grace never ends, right ?

When does the dispensation of grace end ?

Answer: ? ?

(Please show EXPLICIT Bible evidence for your answer.)

IF it does end, then it's NOT the same as the New Covenant, correct?

IF it doesn't end, then aren't many dispensational charts incorrect ?

(because advocates of the position end the dispensation of grace at the close of the church age, which they say, is the Pre-Trib Rapture event)

Related question: WHERE in the Word of God is the dispensation of grace ever said to be "the church age" which ends at the Rapture Gathering?

There are only two passages in the New Testament which use the word "dispensation" and that in only the KJV & NKJV literal versions of the Bible. (The NASB, ESV, NRSV, etc. don't even use the word "dispensation" or the phrase "dispensation of grace" in the Ephesians passages.) The difference between the biblical teaching of "dispensation" vs. Dispensationalism is vast, though undiscerned and/or rejected by some.

Note: In addition to the poorly evidenced inference of dispensationalism, please also add this factual observation to this concern (regarding the strength of the Pre-Tribulation Rapture position): There is not ONE explicit passage in the Bible teaching Jesus Christ's Church is raptured before the tribulation period – the tribulation period as defined by our Lord in Matthew 24:9-22!
