

DAILY PRAYER

(for the week of Jan. 31-Feb 7.)

Some speak of love too easily and mean less than nothing. Some speak of love too rarely, as though it could not really be the truth. Remind me today, O God, to speak of love as I would speak of you, with the radiance of meaning and purpose by which I live. Let me speak of love with the gladness and gratitude that fills my heart and strengthens my soul. You are my love, my love, and nothing can waste or betray the great gift that you are to me. O let my life find its true meaning and purpose not in what I might accomplish or possess, not in what people might celebrate or applaud, but in the grace of your self-giving and my joy. Amen
