

DAILY PRAYER
(for the week of November 22 - 28)

○ God, you alone are the Master of all the world, in all its shadow and light, in all its strength and weakness. You alone cast freely and fully the meaning of your handiwork. You alone measure and keep the fullness of both time and eternity. ○ Help me, Lord, to sense the fullness of each moment as an occasion for your grace and my life to meet. Amen.
