

DAILY PRAYER
(for the week of Nov. 29 - Dec. 5)

O God,

Praise to you in the dawning of the day, and
from the rising of the sun to its setting.

Praise to you in the world's wonder and charm;
and in the hymn of life in all its choruses.

Praise, in the stars and planets, in mountains
and oceans.

Praise, in mycoplasma and microbes, in quanta
and quark.

O God, in the brightness of light and the fullness of time, praise.

Even more than this, you have cared for us in love and wonder.

From age to age you have been constant in faith.

Your love endures beyond the measure of glaciers or mountains.

And in this season of hope, O God, you keep your promises, you answer your people, and your word never returns empty. Amen.
