

DAILY PRAYER
(for the week of Feb. 21 - 27)

Gracious God,

What can I do to praise you more surely, more fully, more deeply? You grant me gift upon gift, grace upon grace. How can I give thanks sufficient for the day? You guard me against evil; you protect those whom I love; you repeatedly forgive, encourage, and restore me. Yet, you demand nothing; you require nothing. You remind me that you will love me whether I love you or not. In the brief passage of this day, O God, teach me to love you. Make clear to my mind and heart what would please you. The whole creation sings your praise. Teach me to sing. Your word in every heart is love. Teach me those tones that I may, with them, rejoice in you. Amen.
