PC(USA) Mission Co-Workers in Lebanon

Where We Were

We've been located in the Middle East (Zahle, Lebanon), teaching at a Christian school. Lebanon is a tiny nation directly north of Israel. Though it has seen (and continues to see) a great deal of political difficulties, Lebanon is a fabulously beautiful nation with some truly wonderful, God-honoring people. We enjoyed the time we've spent in Lebanon thus far and are excited to return later this year.

Where We Are Now

We ran into problems with our visa paperwork and were required to return to the US for a time. We are in the US from April till August. Our "home base" is Rensselaer, IN.

As Mission Co-Workers of the PC(USA), we'd love to connect with as many Presbyterians as we can during our brief time here in the US.

What We'll Do And What We Won't

We are happy to try to accommodate your desires when it comes to sharing our stories with you. Whether that means talking to your Youth Group, presenting at a Sunday School class or missions committee meeting or some other venue, our aim is be a bridge connecting the Church in the US with the Church in Lebanon. Unless specifically asked by our hosts to do so, we will not be asking for financial support for our ministry or other ministries/programs in Lebanon.

Living in Lebanon has been an eye-opening experience for us. Going in we had many misconceptions about the Middle East, Arabs, and Muslims. By God's grace, we've learned a lot, and we are eager to share with our brothers and sisters in Christ some of the things God taught us in Lebanon. If you sense a part or all of your congregation might desire to hear our stories and the stories of our siblings in Christ in Lebanon, please contact us:
