An explanation of the above: Once the Taking Away of the daily sacrifices takes place, the Temple Project will move forward. Approximately 75 days after the regular sacrifices discontinue, there will be heightened tribulation against God's people – including both Old and New Covenant people groups. The Bible calls this time, the war against the saints. At the setting up of the Abomination of Desolation, great tribulation will then unfold, but only for a short time. God will cut short the great tribulation period, closing the $3\frac{1}{2}$ – year war against the saints. Then, astronomical signs will begin the closing years before Christ's 2^{nd} Advent.
