Ministry Areas of Focus for 2020

During our leadership retreat our church council identified three areas where we want to put our focus this coming year. I'm a believer that if you commit to doing 50 things, maybe one or two will get done. Maybe.

But if you commit to doing two or three and put all of your focus there, they will get done and done well! We've got lots of things that we are dreaming about improving and working on, but this year we are focusing on three:

- Being more present with our neighbors;
- Better communication within our church and to the community;
- Improving our youth and children's ministries and developing a long term plan.

That's the “what.” At our next council meeting in February we will begin discussion on the “how.” How are we going to do these things? As we develop a plan, I'll keep all of us informed. Please be in prayer for our church council and leadership. Be in prayer for our neighbors, our communication, and our youth and children's ministry. And as you pray, listen to God's voice. Maybe God is leading you to be part of one of these areas. Maybe God has some vision and ideas that God wants you to share! As a pastor, there's nothing that I love hearing more than a church member ask, “Josh, can I meet with you? I feel like God has given me a new ministry and I want to share it with you.”

I've never been more excited about ministry. Lately God has put in the hearts of many of you a desire to serve in ministry. That's the sign of a healthy, vibrant church and we are seeing glimpses of it everyday. I believe that God is up to something at White Bluff UMC, and I'm thrilled that you and I get to be part of it!

Your fellow servant,

Pastor Josh

In order to do a better job of making our church more visible and appealing to those looking us up in the internet, we are asking everyone to do a quick Google review, which will hopefully improve our Google rating. To do this, on the Google search bar, type WHITE BLUFF UNITED METHODIST CHURCH. When our church name appears, click on REVIEWS. Scroll down half page to RATE AND REVIEW. Click on the number of stars you want to put 1-5, hopefully you will put 5 stars! Then write a message if you want, then POST. It's that easy! You can do a Facebook review also.

The Tin Monster

Jesus said, “Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions.” (Luke 12:15 NIV)

Several years ago, Dr. James Dobson, in trying to encourage couples, wrote: “At least my intentions were good. I once ordered a swing set for my children identical to a shiny display model I’d seen at the store. What arrived, however, was a long box containing roughly 6,324 pipes, 28,487,651 bolts, 28,487,650 screws, and a set of instructions that would have befuddled Albert Einstein. For the next two days, I sweated to assemble bent parts, missing parts, and parts from a 1948 Ford thrown in just to confuse me. Finally, the wobbly construction stood upright.”

“I got another shock when I read the final line printed on the back of the instructions: “Please retighten all the bolts on this apparatus every two weeks to ensure safety and durability.” I now had to devote every other Saturday to this tin monster or it would gobble up my children.

“Everything you own will eventually own you! Unchecked materialism becomes your master, both when you make the purchase and when you must sweat to maintain it. That’s why I heartily encourage you to decide together to own less . . . and enjoy life more.”

Great advice from a great man! Do you have a “tin monster” that has become master of you life? If so, you know what Dr. Dobson is talking about. Keep life simple. Your life is more than what you have. Don’t let what you have keep you from the real Master—the Lord Jesus Christ.

Bro. Ken

Children's Sunday School Back to Basics

We are our children?

For the month of January, Sunday School attendance was way down.

This past Sunday, several children attended the worship service and then Children's Church, but did not stay for the Sunday School hour. Why is that?

In place, we have a marvelous rotation of teachers/helpers volunteering their time to bring forth some exciting Christian enrichment lessons to share with our children.

Here are some changes we are making this year:

Enrolling the children in each class.

Expecting proper behavior from the children-being better listeners, following instructions.

Experiencing spiritual enrichment through new curriculum lessons, Bible readings, educational games, crafts, etc.

Parents-walking your child to class, meet the facilitator team, and returning to pick up your child.

Don't let another Sunday go by—make Sunday School a priority!

I am anxious to work with you and your child/children this year.

Harriet Cobb
Sunday School Superintendent

Dinner and Program

“Prisons and Prisoners”

Billy Tompkins - Retired Prison Warden

Billy will be telling us about his experiences in managing prisons and dealing with prison inmates. What a way to serve!

Billy has a high regard for Kairos Prison Ministry. Several of our church members have been active in Kairos - Bob Stalnaker, Bob Wisener, Joseph Cassiday, David Wilson, and the late Tom Cooper.

What do prisons and prisoners have to do with Christianity? Please join us for fellowship and dinner - and bring a friend with you.

All men, members and non-members, invited.

A MOMENT FOR MISSIONS

I know God wants me to use the gifts He gave me. I pray and pray about this. Why doesn't He tell me what I could do. Every Sunday the pastor goes on and on about the need for volunteers in the church to work with kids, visit/contact the sick/home bound or help with food give aways. I can see that they are important jobs that need to be done, so why can't God just tell me what He wants me to do?

I just don't understand. I pray and pray for a sign but I don't see any. Sure there are bulletin boards, leaflets and posters about helping at the local school, clothes for the homeless and food for the poor but why can't God just show me a sign and let me know what I could do. I guess I will continue to pray about it.

I see on the news stories about floods, fires, people starving. So many things, so much need. The news also shows how some people, young and old are doing wonderful things to help and I have to ask myself why isn't God showing me something I can do? I guess I will continue to pray about it.

I know, God, that you have a lot on your plate, but please just tell me what you want me to do. Just show me. Help me see what I can do to further your work here on earth. I guess I will keep on praying until you can let me know about something I could do.

Pastor Josh and Pastor Ken and my Church Family,

I would like to thank all of you for so many things you did for me while I was sick. Having two surgeries within ninety days, I needed strength and help. You were there for me! Your prayers, love, and care helped me to get better. Our God is so mighty when we are in need.

God bless all of you.

In faith and love to all,

Gayle Spilliards

What an amazing church family we have! Your love and thoughtfulness as evidenced by your prayers, cards, calls and visits meant so much to Tate and my mom and me. Since their passing I have been absolutely overwhelmed and humbled by your outpouring of love and support. My heartfelt thanks to every one of you.

MISSION OF THE MONTH

During the month of February, we will be looking at homelessness in Savannah/Chatham Country. There are 35 homeless camps in Chatham Country, most of which are in Savannah. In 2018 there were 4641 adults with 280 of them being veterans. There were also 900 children. In 2019, the total number of homeless adults increased by 443 to 5084.

We will be collecting personal hygiene supplies for Old Savannah City Mission, a 501(c)(3) organization who's mission is to proclaim the Gospel, shelter the homeless, rehabilitate the addict and restore the ex-offenders. They are located at 2414 Bull Street.

We will be collecting tooth paste, tooth brushes, soap, shampoo, conditioner and razors for Old Savannah City Mission.

There are opportunities for service at the mission for individuals, Sunday School Classes, Circles, Bible Study Groups, Methodist Men and Methodist Women.

If your group would like to have a guest speaker come to your meeting or if you would like to know more about service opportunities, please contact Judy Fonner.

Prayer Corner...

As we celebrate Valentine's Day this month, let us look to the love chapter in the Bible,

1 Corinthians 13 and pray the scriptures...

Dear Heavenly Father,

Help me to be patient and kind. Keep me from growing envious or boastful. Remove any pridefulness in me. May rudeness no longer manifest in my behavior. Teach me to put self on the bottom shelf. Keep me from being easily angered and to stop keeping a record of all the wrongs that are done to me. No longer will I delight in evil, but I will rejoice in the truth. I will protect, trust, hope and persevere. Because You have shown me - this kind of LOVE never fails. In Jesus name, I pray. Amen.
