Drum Roll Please!

Did you play percussion in Middle School or High School? You are qualified! You must be able to do a drum roll and have some musical intuition. I need a person that can learn the timpani part for our opening "Introduction to the Hymn." The "Introduction to the Hymn" is going to have parts that sound the same every week. Those certain parts, which include the timpani, do not change each week. The organ will be playing along with you. Once you learn the short timpani part, you are really done learning for a long time into the future. The timpani player comes up to the choir loft at 9:25 a.m. on Sunday mornings every Sunday morning and after the announcements, would play the short "Introduction to the Hymn" with timpani and organ and then you would go back to the pew. If you are absent that day, there just isn't any timpani! Contact me. I will be thrilled and if I'm thrilled, what will God be!
