A Word from your Pastor...

For Your Spirit

The church sort of goes into diaspora mode during the months of July and August. With family vacations and camps in full swing, worship attendance goes down a bit on Sunday mornings during those months. And just as I say this, I myself am getting ready to go on my vacation with Mina, but not before the Charge Conference and Mina's Walk to Emmaus. Mina and I are planning and looking forward to doing some camping and hiking in our National Parks in California and Lake Tahoe. Jesus knows that we all need to rest from time to time, as he invites us "Come to me, all you who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

At the same time, as you take some time away from UMCTO during summer to rest and recharge, please know how much you are loved and missed at this church. You are an important part of this body of Christ. Let this be your Psalm of praise too, "I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; that I know very well." Psalm 139:14

Let me share with you how important U (you) are through this little piece of puzzle:

Our Church Needs U

THE GOLDEN GLEN ACADEMY

(or How to combat the culture...)

The other day, Dan and Doris Gillespie came to visit the pastor, with their six grandkids and their parents in tow. It's not my business what goes on in the pastor's office, but I could hear laughter and much talking, so I knew it must be something nice and I have to admit, I was curious. After the family left, Pastor John shared that the Gillespies had made the appointment so the kids could ask questions and hear John's witness. That further peaked my curiosity and I wanted to hear more about their family values so I telephoned Doris and then Dan, too. The following is what I learned, and it's something I think might inspire other UMCTO families.

Twenty-one years ago, the Gillespie's daughter Robin Willis gave birth to triplets. Having three infants was overwhelming, and Robin and her husband accepted the offer to move in with Dan and Doris so the grandparents could help with the babies. The Gillespies say those were some of the best times of their lives! When Robin's husband accepted a job in Indiana when the triplets were 8, they were heartbroken to see them go. After thinking it over, Dan suggested they ask to have all their grandkids (their son David had 3 children as well by then) for two weeks every summer, and with the consent of Robin and David & spouses, the grandparents would use that time to pass along values that were important to all the family.

Thus was born the Golden Glen Academy, named after the street where the Gillespies have their home.

So, what are these values the Gillespies strive to instill?

GOLDEN GLEN ACADEMY OATH OF MEMBERSHIP

In the presence of our fellow members, we have all taken this solemn oath.

To increase my knowledge of:

- The basic Christian beliefs
 - My family history, traditions, and enterprise
 - The American principles of liberty, freedom, and individual rights
 - My responsibility to serve others
 - The principles of building and preserving wealth
- And to apply this knowledge in my daily life

To build and improve my relationship with God, family, and friends

To always be truthful

To show honor respect for those who have sacrificed for me

To experience the dignity and satisfaction of physical labor

To experience the joy of making music

To have fun with my fellow academy members and enjoy working on building my future

To demonstrate a commitment to the success of the Golden Glen Academy, and the success of its individual members.

p.s. When the Gillespies were searching for a church they wanted to attend with their triplet grandkids, they came to UMCTO and put the kids in Sunday School while they went to worship. After church, the kids exclaimed that they loved the class and wanted to come back the following Sunday! The rest is history, but guess who the teacher was?

Barbara Marshall, of course!

THE GILLESPIE GOLDEN GLEN ACADEMY COAT OF ARMS

- The “Open book” Symbolizes the Academy’s commitment to the pursuit of knowledge. The goal is always to learn.
- The “Christian Cross” represents the Academy’s commitment to basic Christian beliefs.
- The word “Truth”, prominently displayed in the Coat of Arms symbolizes the Academy’s commitment to the pursuit of truth and truthfulness of its members.
- The “American Eagle” gold coin picture that displays a family of eagles, symbolizes the Academy’s commitment to family history, traditions and enterprises.
- The “Miss Liberty” on the American Eagle Gold Coin symbolizes the Academy’s commitment to the American principles of freedom, liberty and individual rights.
- The two arrows symbolize the Academy’s understanding that our freedom, liberty and family traditions must be defended if they are to be preserved.
- The two “G” block gold letters represent 12 Golden Glen Dr., Simi Valley, CA. This is the present residence of Doris and Dan Gillespie, which they have left in a Trust for the continuation of the Academy for future generations.

Ask Doris or Dan sometime to describe the activities they have engaged in with their grandkids each summer as they teach and exemplify the Academy values - books, travel, charity, regular but never boring lessons - so creative and challenging! What a blessing for the grandkids, and for us to hear about!

Thank you, Dan and Doris Gillespie!

LIGHTHOUSE GRATITUDE

Every month, the Lighthouse Outreach team brings the hope of Jesus to women who are seeking shelter at the facility in Oxnard. We connect with those who have little or no hope for their future - through Bible study, prayer, personal conversations, and the donations provided by our generous congregation.

Please keep these women in mind when you are shopping or cleaning out your cabinets. We provide 24 hygiene kits each month with prayer cards or devotional booklets, as well as shampoos, combs, body wash, toothpaste, etc. We are constantly turning over the items you bring in!

Thank you for your continued support and prayers for the Lighthouse.

SIERRA SERVICE PROJECT (SSP) - AUGUST 6-12

At least 21 Sr. High youth will be heading to SSP during the first week in August. This year, they travel to San Diego to work in the neighborhood of City Heights. Accommodations will be at First UMC of San Diego, Pastor Craig Brown’s church (a former UMCTO pastor!) They will also serve with the San Diego Canyonlands on environmental preservation, as well as take a day trip to Tijuana, Mexico during “Adventure Wednesday”. As always, they will be building and painting and repairing things for those less fortunate than we all are.

About the location:

To the southeast of Mission Valley is the area known as City Heights. This is where SSP will do most of its service work this summer. City Heights is San Diego’s most diverse and densely populated area. It is home to about 91,000 people and has a population density 15,000 people per square mile, compared to 4,000 per square mile in the city as a whole. City Heights has a very diverse population. About half of the residents are Hispanic. There are significant populations of people originating from East Africa, South Asia, and the Middle East. About 40 percent of residents were born outside of the U.S. About one-quarter of residents “speak English not well or not at all.”

The percentage of people living in poverty in City Heights is about 30 percent. This includes many working people. Most City Heights residents work in service, construction, or industry.

Mighty Chaperones/Counselors:

Tim Snyder, Michelle Ackerman, Dori Fotsch & Dani St. Clair

Adventure Wednesday

San Diego is the northern half of the largest trans-border or trans-national metropolitan area in the United States. On Wednesday, all participants will participate in a border experience on either the San Diego or Tijuana side of the border.

NEW "NO NAME" CIRCLE FORMED

A brand new UMW Circle was formed in June. We have yet to decide on a name for the circle. However, already we have 12 members!

Meetings are held in the Wesley Room at 7 p.m. on the first Monday of each month (except when a holiday falls on the first Monday when we will meet on the second Monday), and will last approximately 1 1/2 hours.

We've planned a variety of programs and activities to help us grow spiritually, be of service to others, learn about missions and missionaries, and be aware of social justice issues. At our August 7 meeting, we'll be decorating "Blessing Boxes" in preparation for the World Thank Offering scheduled for later this fall.

Call Lois Sheen at (805) 497-3451 to join the circle or get more information.

SAVE THE DATE - UMW FALL LUNCHEON

The UMW Fall Luncheon has been scheduled on the church calendar for October 7 at 11:00 a.m. - 1:15 p.m. in Dickerson Hall, of course! The theme, "Gifts Galore", will include a program featuring music and a testimony about "Reid's Gift" by Vicki Moreno, a past president of our local UMW.

Dr. Molly Rearick, founder and director of Reid's Gift, will tell about a program which has enriched Vicki's autistic son's life and the lives of other teens and adults with disabilities. We'll have a "mini store" where you can "shop" for gifts made by the students in the program!

constructing a community of competence

Watch for more details as the summer draws to a close.

RECOMMENDED READING FROM THE BOOK WORM - Jan Maddox

I hope all of you are enjoying the summer and reading some interesting books. You might want to look at the UMW website for books not on the book cart. The website is UnitedMethodist-Women.org/reading program. New books have been added to the reading cart - the list is opposite. →

I recently read, "Please Look After Mom" by Kyung-Sook Shin, a novel about 69 year old So-Nyo separated from her husband in the Seoul subway station. Her family begins a desperate search for her. Long held secrets and sorrows reveal themselves, and they begin to wonder how well did they know the woman they called mom?

UMW Book Club does not meet in July or August.

New books!

- * "High Yield" by Tom Berlin, Lovett H. Weems, Jr.
- * "Money on Purpose - Finding a Faith-Filled Balance" by Shayna Lear
- * "America and Its Guns - A Theological Expose" by James E Atwood

Clown Corners

from Mr. Blue, the Clown
 (aka Randall Harold)

Praise be to God in the highest! How is our church family? A special love goes out to Thousand Oaks Methodist church family & friends. I want to offer my thankfulness & gratitude for all involved in helping the Harolds in our continuous fight for health & stability. We commend the following people: May Simonds, Wanda Williams, Barbara Marshall, Bud, Gloria & Pam Wilson, Juanita Wilson, Lois & Ray Sheen, Shirley Hamilton, and Mitch & Debbie Schrader. And not to forget Marge Mayfield who has signed up to sit with dad every Thursday at 7:15am until September! You are awesome, Marge! If I have forgotten anyone, we love you all. God bless this church. Now here's this month's update:

Marianne is now back home. Pops is very happy. Robin, my sister, came to visit and assist for a week. She arranged to hire Ciara Whalen to help around the house for 3-4 mornings a week. Rick is hanging in there with us and we have more occupational and physical therapy to come. Surgery is still in question so we're off riding through the sunset of faith and hope.

Happy trails to you...until we meet again!
