SEPTEMBER 2018

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

September already! Did anyone see where August went? I must have blinked and missed it!

What an exciting time of year for us at St. Paul's! We celebrated Rally Day on the last Sunday of August. I hope that you attended and were as amazed as I was at the amount of people in our congregation who are committed to Christian Education. It was a wonderful worship service that was dedicated to our kids and to those who dedicate themselves to service to our youth in the many programs that St. Paul's offers.

Speaking of programs, we are getting ready to begin offering Sunday School once again for this year. I am excited to report that I will be teaching the adult Sunday School class. I will be leading a group through Max Lucado's new book, Unshakable Hope. We are utilizing our East Ohio Conference Media Center membership and I am borrowing the teaching DVDs. You can purchase the book for the study at any Christian book store, online through any book seller or we can order a book for you through the church office. If you need us to order a book for you, please let the office know. The books are currently available for $13.00. We will be spending twelve weeks in this study. I hope that you will consider joining us.

Please continue to pray for me as I continue to settle into serving as your pastor, as well as serving in the team ministry at Melmore and Republic. Exciting things are happening in all three congregations. God is doing big things in His church and it is amazing to see how He truly does work all things for the good of those who believe and are called to Him.

I hope that this September finds you rejuvenated and ready to head into a new season. God's creation really shows off during Fall. I can't wait to see the colors and the beautiful scenery that God has gifted us with. Fall holds a special place in my heart because it was my favorite time of year when I was growing up, mostly because I got to spend a lot of time outside with my dad at his hunting clubs. I think that is why I appreciate the scenery of fall so much.

As always, if you are in the church, please be sure to stop by my office and say hi.

God bless you and keep you!

Pastor Charlene

TRUSTEE THANK YOU'S

The trustee's would like to thank the following individuals for all of the hard work they have been doing to keep St. Paul's looking great!! Without their hard work and dedication we would be a mess! Leslie Paradiso and Kathy Daniel for helping with weeding and keeping our flower beds looking great! Jean Hoffert for cleaning and keeping the inside looking good! Duane Hoffert for all of the work he does fixing and repairing things, he is truly a jack of all trades. John Patterson for keeping the mower running and things looking good at the parsonage, among all of the other projects he helps with at the church.

THANK YOU!!

On Saturday, August 18th, St. Paul's welcomed 20 students from Heidelberg University to our church. The students were serving in the community as part of the BergServ Day. These students definitely did serve our church. They cleaned our pews, scrubbed floors, cleaned and cleaned and cleaned some more! It was such a blessing!

Special thanks to David Thomas for supervising the students. Also thanks to Gary Arnold, Rich Kinstler and Marilou Hill for coordinating jobs and preparing for the work day.

Thanks for all your prayers, cards, visits, texts & flowers. Your words of encouragement & landscaping help have also been a special blessing during my recent hospital & rehab stay. Thanks to Pastor Charlene for her texts & visits.
Sincerely,
Karen Kinstler
