Pastor letter

Dear Friends in Christ,

As we get into October, I'm reminded of how my journey has been so far. From Colorado to Montana! Just like in Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 "There's a season for everything." We need to be reminded that as the seasons change, we change with it. Fall begins with nippy air, shorter days, and the turning point of leaf's makes it bad for golfers like me. 😞 It's a visible reminder that God is always at work in us. In nature as well. Just as farmers wrap up work, the fields prepare to rest after harvest, we too, are invited to pause, reflect, and let God shape us for what we face ahead.

This season is also a time for gratitude. We give thanks for the blessings we've experienced so far this year, and we look forward to opportunities ahead to serve our community, grow in faith, and walk together as the body of Christ.

I encourage each of us to take a moment this month to notice God's presence in the small things: a neighbor's kindness, a child's laughter, the beauty of creation around us. These are reminders that God is near, guiding us through every season of life. May we step into this new season with open hearts, ready to receive God's grace and to share it with others.

As we go into this next season of Thanksgiving and Advent please love your friends, families, strangers and remember we are all one with Christ we are all his vessels of love. Lift each other up and keep sharing each precious moment. I write this as I'm at my home in Colorado to see my loved ones and to make new everlasting moments with them!! I'm looking forward to tell each one of you about my time at home. As they have heard my amazing time with you folks!

In Christ's Love,
Pastor Phil Spicer
